

STEVE MOSES

MD of Penzance
insurance broker,
Jacksons

WHAT DID YOU WANT TO BE WHEN YOU WERE YOUNG?

Growing up in the early 70s, my one ambition was to play football for West Ham.

When reality kicked in, I immediately turned my intention to insurance broking (not!), as most of us in the industry would say, we all somewhat "fall into it"...

WHAT WAS YOUR FIRST FULL TIME JOB?

I left school after A-levels and "fell" straight into a job as a trainee insurance broker and here I am 40 years later still broking.

WHAT'S IN YOUR POCKETS?

It depends on what I'm doing, phone and keys most of the time, but I like it better when it's tennis balls, golf balls, doggie treats, sunglasses, foreign currency...

HOW DO YOU LIKE TO RELAX?

Enjoying good food and wine, barbequing, watching the footy, playing tennis (badly), padel, golf and other sports, all with great friends and family.

IF YOU COULD BUILD A HOUSE ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD, WHERE WOULD IT BE?

I'd have to build two, one in the Caribbean and one in the Alps.

WHAT HAS BEEN THE BEST MOMENT IN YOUR CAREER?

Being invited to become a partner in Jacksons back in 2001. I had realised soon after coming into insurance broking that I eventually wanted to be involved in owning and running my own business so this was a proud moment.

WHAT'S THE BEST THING ABOUT CORNWALL?

The beaches, the people, pasties, saffron cake, need I go on...

IF YOU COULD BE GOD FOR A DAY, WHAT MIRACLE WOULD YOU PERFORM?

West Ham winning the Premiership and the Champions League, now that would be miracle!

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE DOING IN FIVE YEARS' TIME?

At my age, breathing! And spending more time with my wife, family and friends in Cornwall and various parts of the world.
